

The 10 a. m. train on Saturdays only goes to Louisville, where connections are made for Cincinnati and St. Louis.

One train on Sunday, at 10 a. m., running through to Indianapolis, connecting at Seymour for St. Louis and Cairo, also Cincinnati and the East, and at Indianapolis for the principal cities of the West and North.

Only one change of cars between Louisville and Cincinnati, St. Louis or Chicago.

Baggage checked to all the principal cities. All changes of cars made by train running into the same depot, thereby avoiding annoying Omnibus rides incidental to other routes.

Time as quick and fare as low as any other route.

Through tickets and further information given at the Company's Office, No. 527 southeast corner of Main and Third streets, Louisville, Ky., or at the depot in Jeffersonville.

The Atlantic Cable.

The nineteenth century, already remarkable for the most brilliant achievements in science and art, has by this crowning act, stamped immortality on its forever.

It is impossible, at this early date, to estimate the advantages which result from an enterprise like this. The mechanic, the merchant, and the statesman will reap incalculable benefits from this source. The most important events of a world's day will flash beneath the rolling Atlantic, and be received, printed, and delivered to our readers every morning. The press will supply the politician with speeches delivered in the British Parliament the preceding night, and the merchant with the daily business of the Paris Bourse and the Royal Exchange.

A closer alliance with Europe will follow and thereby an increased knowledge of her power, her policy, and the habits of her people. One year of the Atlantic cable will teach us more of Eastern civilization than ten years of steamships. Future generations will mark our time as the era of this great triumph. Poets will sing of it, and scientific men look to it as the incentive to future exertion; the orator will grow eloquent over it, and the philosopher regard it as the incontestable proof of the progressive element in man.

Commerce, guided and directed by the perfect knowledge which this means of communication must afford, will bear the fruits of the earth and the labors of the loom to the point at which they are most needed. What portion of the civilized world can be subjected to the perils of famine, when every moment, as by the throbbing of a pulse, conveys the slightest echo and flow of demand and supply. Nor is this all. We prophesy that if the Marconi Queen of England takes an airing, all republicanism will be informed of it. If Louis Napoleon rides with or without an assassin on his track, all in terrestrial America will learn of it. If Eugene has a new style of bonnet or a baby, the wiring intelligence will cumber the ever ready wire.

Paterfamilias sitting cozily by the winter's fire, will con on the relation of events which took place since breakfast-time in England, France, Germany, and perhaps Russia. Our bellies will be able to don the latest fashion simultaneously with its appearance in Paris, and our exquisite will learn of the newest form of moustache, the latest style of shirt collar, or the most recent agony in the cut of inexpressibles.

Any one, upon reflection, will perceive that the events of the age will be hastened; that the history of one year in the world's progress hereafter will furnish more facts than those of any ten during the last century.

Police Court—Richard Walker, whose case was continued on the charge of passing counterfeit money, was discharged by the Court. The witness was unable to identify him, he having shaved off his whiskers.

Brigdet Ferry, Wm. Porter, and Frank Ferrill, were arrested on a charge of drunkenness. Bridget's husband went her bail, and the others were discharged, after promising to leave the city.

Sarah Atwood, who drinks a great deal, sued out a peace warrant against Harry Meyer, and his wife. The Court discharged the parties, after delivering a lecture to them.

Chas. Vonderhede, Jacob Elderkin, and John Calhoun, were up on the charge of shooting at, and wounding S. L. Pease, with intent to kill. An examination was not had; but the parties were held to bail to answer—Vonderhede in $1,500, and the other two in $500 each.

The case of White, for killing Herman, was called.

Asbury—Night before last, between 8 and 9 o'clock, young Morehead, son of Gov. C. S. Morehead, accompanied by one or two others, stepped into the office of Dr. O'Neil, with whom he has been acquainted some considerable time, and asked the Doctor to go to the Galt House and take a drink. The Doctor remarked that he was busy and could not go, whereupon young Morehead dragged him by the collar to the door, and outside—the Doctor all the time thinking him in fun—saying he should go, and when he had got the Doctor out, struck him a severe blow upon the head. One of the Fourth Ward night-watch, whose name we forgot to inquire, was standing by, to whom the Doctor applied, begging to be taken up by the Governor's son. Dr. O'Neil is an Irishman, and Morehead is the son of the K. N. Governor of the State, consequently is at liberty to do as he pleases, especially with an Irishman. The Doctor took out a warrant for M.'s arrest; and informs us that the police refused to make the arrest, even with the warrant.

Dr. We call the attention of stockholders in the Southern Pacific Railroad Company of Texas, to the call of the President for a general meeting of the stockholders in Louisville, on the 24th of this month. Business of vital importance will be brought before the meeting.

It is generally conceded that the survey of this route is the shortest, cheapest, and best route to the Pacific coast. Let every share of stock in Kentucky, and throughout the United States, be fully represented at the meeting here. In past management has suffered heavy losses to the company, which, by carefully watching, will never occur in the future. The road, of itself, is a success, and the stockholders should see that nothing in future shall deter its speedy completion.

The remaining unpaid loan (fourteen in number), in O'Neil's addition to Shepherdsville, will be sold at the Auction Rooms of S. G. Henry & Co., at 10 o'clock this morning. Terms cash.

Persons who prefer good light bread and biscuit to that which is clammy and heavy, will always use Hurley's Quick Yeast. See advertisement in another column.

Total... 9440 9477 0000 0000

Dr. Wood's majority in the eleven counties heard from, is 1,160; the remaining counties gave Bullitt a majority of 24 votes. If Wood gains as largely in those counties as he has done so far heard from, we may calculate his majority in the district will reach 1,500.

Campbell County—Revill 1,107; McKee 624; County Judge, Boyd, Dem.; 1,030; Wheeler, K. N.; 727; Sheriff, Helm, Dem.; 1,619; Barron, K. N.; 501; County Clerk, Thomas, Dem.; 1,143; Payne, K. N.; 64; County Attorney, Kavanaugh, K. N.; 671; DeCourcy, Dem.; 1,073.

SELECT SCHOOL.—Dr. A. Guentz will open a select school on Broadway, between First and Brook streets, on the first day of September. He limits the number of pupils to twenty, and will devote his whole attention to their tuition and management.

Dr. Guentz is eminently qualified to teach, and enjoys great experience in the management of schools. He is well known as a gentleman and scholar who has devoted many years to the instruction and management of pupils, and we commend him to the attention of those who have youths to educate.

DEATH.—Jonathan Cain, better known as John Alligator, who was shot by Oren, died last night between eight and nine o'clock. He was sensible to the last, and knew his friends before they came around. A few moments before his last breath, he said, "I'm going home in a few minutes." The Coroner held an inquest over the body, and the verdict was, that Cain came to his death from a gunshot wound at the hands of J. W. Oren.

Dr. Messrs. John Cawin & Co., of Walker's City Exchange, are in receipt of young prize chickens, woodcock, and other luxuries, to which we direct the attention of epicures. The larder of Walker's Exchange all times offers the fullest variety of seasonable luxuries.

Dr. Messrs. Clement and Matlack declared to Sheriff McGowan, yesterday afternoon, that they made the vote a tie between Batman and Thomas; and when asked, afterwards, by the other party, how, replied that there were errors in favor of Thomas, but they would give a certificate to either. But a short time elapsed before they decided a majority of two for Thomas, and gave him a certificate.

THE NEW POST OFFICE.—We are authorized to announce to all our readers that the new post-office, in the Custom House building, corner of Third and Green, will be open to the public this morning, where all must call for their papers and letters. The old office is closed.

THE DECISION OF THE COMMISSIONERS TO COMPARE THE VOTE.—It was a fit termination to the dying struggles of the late Know Nothing party, that they should be guilty of trickery. A party bent in violence ought to terminate in chicanery.

Wholesale cigar dealers would do well to attend the sale of cigars, at S. G. Henry & Co.'s, this morning.

Persons in England who leave railroad cars when trains are in motion, are subject to legal penalties. A lady was fined $5, and 50 cents, a few weeks ago, for having stepped out of a train on the Crystal Palace line, before the cars had stopped.

A gang of thieves and counterfeiters have been arrested in Decatur county, Indiana, by the aid of the police of Cincinnati, and large quantities of bogus money, and stolen goods recovered.
